

ARC463

ARCHITECTURE

FOR

SOCIAL CHANGE

MEF / FADA

Fall 2026-2027

Thursday-9:30-12:30_Online

Instructor H. Güher Tan, PhD
guhergurcan@gmail.com
tang@mef.edu.tr

Medical Faculty Housing (La Mémé), Woluwé-Saint-Lambert — Lucien & Simone Kroll (1970-76)

The course aims to critically engage with the relationship between architecture, politics, and society across historical and contemporary contexts. Drawing on theories, case studies, and design practices, students will explore how spatial environments both reflect and shape power relations, crises, social movements, and ecological challenges.