

exhibition design

MEF University
Faculty of Arts Design and Architecture

2025-2026 Spring

INT 441
Tuesday 10:00-12:50

Beril Sezen Sarhan
sezenb@mef.edu.tr

Exhibition Design explores the historical transformation of exhibition practices through selected museum, gallery, and display examples. The course examines the relationship between the work of art and space from architectural and curatorial perspectives, focusing on the evolving role of interior design as a spatial, aesthetic and epistemological framework. Structured as a lecture-based course, it is supported throughout the semester by technical field trips, hands-on exercises, encouraging both critical reflection and spatial experimentation.